Welcome to the Great Mississippi Valley Fair!

The Fair Board of Directors, staff and management all welcome you to the Great one, the Mississippi Valley Fair and its 98th edition! You will find a grounds packed with attractions. Fair food is the best and the free grounds entertainment is perfect for the entire family. Each evening our great grandstand will be home to some of the biggest names in the music industry, all for your enjoyment.

Let's not forget the animals at the Fair too. From the farm to the most exotic from around the world, all here for your family to engage with. There's an awesome petting zoo too for even the smallest fairgoer!

The carnival will bring its own brand of summertime magic to the fair. Afternoon family specials and when the sun goes down, the midway makes an exciting change to bright lights and the fun sounds of laughter and memories of summer being made.

Again, thank you for your continued support of the Fair, you make it the greatest 6 day Fair in the entire Midwest. Join in the celebration and have a ball.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Mississippi Valley Fair reserves to its Board the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations, arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incidental to the Fair.

ENTRIES

2. All entries must be filed with the Fair office as provided for in the various divisions.
3. All entries must be made on the printed forms, which are at the back of this book. Please send a self-addressed stamped (business size) envelope to receive your entry tags from the Fair office.
4. ENTRIES IN ALL DEPARTMENTS CLOSE JULY 15TH, or when available space in the individual department is filled.
5. In the event of conflict of general and special rules, the latter will govern.
6. Articles which are the result of mechanical or artistic skill must be entered by the artist, inventor, manufacturer or authorized agent.
7. Should any individual enter an animal or article in a name other than that of a bonafide owner or attempt to perpetuate a fraud by misrepresenting any fact, the entry thus made shall not be allowed to compete for or receive any premium.
8. Exhibits which have been erroneously entered may, at the discretion of the manager and superintendent of the department, be transferred to their proper class previous to the judging. If the classes to which they have been transferred have been judge, they shall not be rejudged.
9. All animals must be entered in the name of the owner and must have been owned by him not less than 30 days prior to the opening day of the Fair unless otherwise stated in the special rules governing the department in which exhibited. In case of question as to the age of an animal, the superintendent shall appoint an expert, whose decision shall be final.
10. Substitution of animals entered for reasons satisfactory to the management of the Fair will be permitted prior to the opening day of the Fair, providing conditions as to ownership are complied with. All requests for substitution of this kind and the reasons therefore, together with name, date of birth and registry number of the animal substituted shall be approved by the superintendent of the department and filed in writing with the manager.

PEDIGREES

11. No animal can be entered or exhibited as pure bred unless the same has been recorded in the recognized book of record for their breed, and exhibitors must produce certificates of registry at the request of the superintendent in charge any time during the Fair.

STALLS AND PENS

12. Stalls and pens will not be reserved unless application is accompanied by the required fee. All applications should be sent direct to the manager, either previous to or at the time entries are made. Assignments will be made by the department superintendent. Stalls or pens absolutely cannot be used for sleeping quarters or storage of feed, but may be used only for stabling animals. Exhibitors must keep the space in the rear of their stalls clear and clean; all litter must be thrown where indicated by the superintendent of the department.

PLACEMENT OF EXHIBITS

13. All Exhibits must be on the ground not later than the date and hour specified in the rules for the department, except otherwise provided in special rules. Times for arrival and departures for all livestock classes are recorded in the rules for the several departments.
14. Articles entered by be sent by express or parcel post direct to Mississippi Valley Fair, but in no case will such package be received or placed on exhibition unless all charges are prepaid. Address on package should be as follows: (Entry Blank must be enclosed)
Entry Department
Mississippi Valley Fair
2815 West Locust Street
Davenport, Iowa 52804
with sender's name and address printed legibly thereon. Instruction for returning same should be placed inside the package when sent, with shipping costs enclosed, or if by express can be returned express collect.
15. The management will use diligence to ensure the safety of all exhibits after their arrival and placement, but in no case will they be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

RELEASE OF EXHIBITS

16. All concessions and commercial exhibits must remain until 10:00 P.M. the last day of the Fair. All competitive open class exhibits must be in place and remain until the prescribed times as recorded for the department entered. Gate keepers and police will restrain any person from passing out the gates before hour of releasement with items or livestock that have been on exhibition, without a written order from the secretary.
17. Exhibitors in departments where entry tags are used must present entry tag receipt for the return of their exhibit to the superintendent or the assistants of the department in which the articles were shown. Under no circumstances will the exhibitor be permitted access to display cases or space where exhibits are shown.

AWARDS

18. Where there is competition, prizes will be awarded as far as there are worthy entries. Where there are fewer entries in a class than number of premiums offered, judges may, at their discretion, award a prize or prizes of such grade as the animal or article deserves.
19. No animal will be awarded a prize unless promptly brought into the show ring when class is called. Animals entered and not brought into the ring at the proper time, unless excused by the superintendent, will be charged double the regular stall or pen fee.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

20. Premiums in all departments will be paid as soon after the date of the Fair as practicable. CHECKS NOT CASHED BY DECEMBER 31, 2017 WILL NOT BE HONORED FOR PAYMENT.

PROTESTS

21. All protests must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $20 in the livestock department and $10 in all other departments, which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Such protests must state plainly the cause of the complaint or appeal and must be filed with the manager within twelve hours after cause of protest. No complaint or appeal based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent will be considered by the Board. Judges decision will be final.

JUDGES AND CLERKS

22. Judges are requested to read carefully the general and special rules under the head of the department in which they are to serve and shall not award prizes to an unworthy animal or article, as it is the intention of the Fair Board that no premium of this kind shall be awarded any animal or article that is not deserving. This rule must be strictly adhered to where there be competition or not.
23. Judges shall report to the superintendent any exhibitor who in any way, whether in person or by agent or employees, interferes with them during the judging, or show any disrespect to them, whereupon the superintendent shall, at his discretion, demand a proper apology from such exhibitor or exclude him from further competition, and the Board may withhold from such exhibitor any premiums that have been awarded him, and disqualify him for further exhibiting at the Fair.
24. The person acting as clerk to the judge shall make accurate records of the awards granted. In the horse, cattle and swine departments, it is necessary that the name, registry number and date of birth be given for each animal awarded a prize. In case a substitute animal is shown or in case this data was not given, and recorded in the judge's book at the time entries were made, it must be secured by the clerk before animal leaves the ring.
25. The judges and superintendent of the department must sign each judge's sheet immediately after the awards are made. The sheets for each division judged shall be turned in to the Fair Office soon after the judging as possible.

SUPERINTENDENTS

26. Superintendents shall have full charge of their departments, being responsible to the Secretary and the Fair Board.

PUBLIC SAFETY

27. The Fair Board has given due consideration to public safety and have arranged for adequate Police and Fire protection for the duration of the Fair. Cooperation by Fair patrons with these staffs will enhance the chances of a "No Accident" Fair. The Mississippi Valley Fair will use all care and caution possible to prevent accidents or damage of every kind, but said Fair assumes no liability or damages to property or person of anyone attending, exhibiting, or doing business at the Fair.

EXHIBITOR RESTRICTIONS

28. Exhibitors must function from space assigned. None are permitted to roam the grounds soliciting orders for goods of any kind, donations for any cause or distribution of literature.

SPECIAL NOTICE

29. NO INTOXICATING LIQUOR, BEER OR CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES CAN BE BROUGHT TO FAIR GROUNDS. THIS FAIR ASSOC. MAKES A SINCERE EFFORT TO ABIDE BY IOWA LAW, ALSO HOLDS AN IOWA LIQUOR LICENSE. WE ASK THAT ALL PATRONS ABIDE BY THESE LAWS.

Results Announced.....11:30 a.m., Friday, August 4, 2017
(Claussen Building)

Judge .....

Participating Organization .....Scott County Cattlemen’s Assoc.

ELIGIBILITY

Any beef cattle feeder is eligible to participate in this event. A minimum live weight of 975 pounds is required and for the carcass contest 575 pounds chilled weight. Judges will generally prefer carcasses grading USDA choice or better to place.

Entries are limited to not over two head per exhibitor.
Entry fee: $30.00 per head. Entries taken day of show only.

JUDGING

Steers will be judged on the basis of true market value for cattle fed for the mass retail market. Cattle thus judged are rated as to their true market value at the time of the show. Judges for both divisions will correlate their procedures so that all entries will be evaluated in each judging on the basis of being fed and purchased for this mass retail market.

NOTICE TO ALL EXHIBITORS

All exhibitors must sign a statement that any drugs that may have been used in the feeding program have been withdrawn from the ration for that period required by government regulations. Cattle with horns longer than 3” will not be accepted for registration. Unruly animals will not be allowed to participate in the live judging.

NEW RULE

Tyson Food requires all exhibitors to be Beef Quality Assurance Certified. Tyson Food is not processing any dairy beef or dairy influenced beef at this time, therefore that type of cattle can’t be exhibited.
Any questions, call Mark Rock - 320-0781.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All entries will be sold to Tyson Food, Geneseo, Illinois on a grade and yield basis at the current market at time of sale. Checks for purchases will be distributed when results are final.
2. Tyson Food shall deduct $5.00 per head for transportation of the cattle from Rock Island Livestock Auction to the packing plant.
3. Steers must be brought to the Rock Island Livestock Auction between 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 25, 2017.
4. No person will be allowed in the ring other than the judges, officials and handlers. No exhibitor will be allowed in the ring at any time.
5. Steers will be weighed on Rock Island Livestock Auction scales on entering ring. (No heifers)
6. Steers will be ear tagged for identification. All other tags will be removed.
7. See new rule on previous page.
8. Judges decisions will be final.

BASIS OF SALE

Cattle entered in this show will be sold to Tyson Food, Geneseo, Illinois based on their bid price for cattle grading No. 3 on Wednesday, July 26, 2017. Likewise, premiums for cattle grading No. 1 and No. 2 will be granted equal to the prevailing offer at this time, and discounts for grades No. 4 and No. 5 will apply as quoted at this same time.

7. All exhibits in this department must be labeled with variety name.
8. As the exhibition is designed to be educational, it is expected that exhibitors will cooperate with the management by giving all possible information to visitors. This is the place to learn varieties, their season, hardiness, value, etc., also methods of packing, marketing and any other matters pertaining to horticulture.
9. The arrangement of exhibits will be directed by the supervisor and will be classified wherever possible. Any plate that does not contain the correct number of specimens will be excluded from competition.
10. The judges will consider the following points in placing the various classes:
  - (a) Absolute accuracy of name will be required and any variety incorrectly named may, at the discretion of the management, be re-classified or excluded from competition. Variety name must be listed on entry blank for every category that states "Any Other Variety ..., Must be named."
  - (b) All specimens showing disease or insect injury will be excluded from competition.
  - (c) All individual plates and the small collections will be placed by the comparative method.
11. Any premium may be withheld at the discretion of the judge.
12. Exhibitors are prohibited from handling any exhibit or material, other than their own, unless permission is secured from the superintendent.
13. Apples, Plums and Pears must be shown with stems attached.
14. All small fruits and vegetables are to be displayed on a firm, white, 6" or 8" Chinet paper or plastic disposable plate provided by the exhibitor.
15. All exhibits should be prepared according to the "Harvesting and Preparing Vegetables for Exhibit" pamphlet available from the Scott Co Extension Service.

RULES

Class 1A - 1B

- Participant must register at the Entry Department, no later than July 15. 2017 Entries must be made on regulation entry blanks, which can be found in the back of this book. Entry tags will then be made and sent out to participants if you include a self addressed stamped envelope (business size) or you may pick up your tags at the entry department. Remove the string and tape entry tag on the back of your photograph. Photographs must be brought to the Entry Department on Monday, July 25, 2017, from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.
- There will be a $6.00 entry fee per exhibit. Limit of two entries per exhibitor for this division.
- All aspects of photo must be the original work of the exhibitor. (composition, any editing/retouching, and mounting)
- At the time of filling the exhibits, arrangements will be made by personnel of the Entry Department as to identification, and pickup. Any photos to be returned by mail must be accompanied with packaging labeling and correct postage, or they will not be return shipped. Those exhibitors picking up their photos should pick them up on Monday, August 8 between 10:00 a.m. and Noon. If you can not be there please have a friend or relative bring your entry claim stub and pick it up for you.
- ENTRY DIMENSIONS: Photos should be matted and/or mounted on a stiff backing/artmat/cardstock. No thick foam board backing please. Overall size of exhibit should be 8 x 10 (plus or minus a 1/2 inch in each direction) and no thicker than 3/16 of an inch. Entries not following these deadlines may be disqualified by the superintendent.

6. All prints must be taken after July 10, 2016.
7. A fair entry tag must be attached to the rear of the photo with the title of the entry. TITLE makes up 10% of the scoring.
8. Judges determinations and interpretations of rules will be final - not subject to any review.
9. The Fair Management will use diligence to ensure the safety of exhibits while in their care, but in no case are responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.
10. Prints will be judge on Composition - 20%, Mechanics - 25%, Storytelling Ability - 30%, Neatness of presentation - 15%, and Title - 10%.
11. Any prints NOT meeting above specifications or not considered in good taste will not be displayed (We reserve this right). Entries from professional photographers not eligible and will be excluded from competition.

RULES

1. There is a $1.00 entry fee for each entered exhibit. Please send a self-addressed stamped business size envelope in order to receive your entry tags. Each entry tag must include Division (64), Category code (A, B, C, D) and Class # (1-7). NOTE THE CLOSING DATE OF ENTRIES.
2. Registration of entries closes July 15, 2017.
3. Exhibits must be delivered between 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM on Sunday, July 30, 2017 to the Starlite Ballroom on the MVF grounds. PLEASE NOTE: EXHIBITS WILL BE ACCEPTED ONE DAY ONLY.
4. All exhibits entered must have been executed within the past two years and NOT been exhibited at the MVF before. EXHIBITORS ARE ALLOWED ONE ENTRY PER CLASS.
5. All work must be an original work of the exhibitor and can not be copies of published photographs or art work previously done by someone else.
6. Oil and acrylic paintings MAY BE FRAMED, BUT THIS IS OPTIONAL and is not recommended due to lack of space to hang the exhibits. If the exhibit is framed, it must have hook eyes and a wire attached to the frame to make it easier to hang. Any framed art work not equipped with the mandatory hanging requirements may be returned to the exhibitor and will not be eligible for a prize.
7. Pastels, water color, black and white, and other mediums executed on paper MUST BE MATTED AND MOUNTED ON STIFF CARDBOARD. These must have sturdy hangers which will not fall off when hung for a week. (Scotch Tape and Duct Tape does not hold.)
8. Because of space limitations for hanging the exhibit, NO ENTRY can be over 30 inches in any direction, including frame. Also, exhibitors may wish to use plexiglass as an alternative to real glass for framed works due to weight of the art work. Another alternative to framing with glass would be to use shrink wrap for your exhibit.
9. All work will be judged on originality of subject, quality of handling the materials used, graphic appeal, and overall creativity.
10. The Management of the MVF and superintendents will use diligence to ensure the safety of exhibits after their arrival and placement in the exhibit, but in no case, will any of these parties be responsible for any loss of damage that may occur.
11. If there is only one entry in a class, the judge reserves the right to make an award. An award will be given only if the work is deserving of a prize.
12. None of the accepted exhibits should be removed from the exhibit area until Monday, August 7, 2017 from 9:00 AM until 11:00 AM. Exhibits not picked up will be taken to the entry department located in the Tower.

Premium Contributed by Mississippi Valley Fair.....	$674.00
Co-Superintendents .....	Ingelore Nabb, Park View, IA Kenneth Nabb, Princeton, IA
Judges.....	John & Peg Slusher, Marion, IA
Sponsor.....	Tri-City Rose Society

RULES

1. Open to amateur gardeners only. NOVICE CLASSES ADDED THIS YEAR, PAGE 106
2. A $1.00 entry fee is required per exhibit.
3. All exhibits must be in place by 10:00 A.M., Saturday, August 5th, 2017. If exhibitor does not intend to stay at the Fair after bringing in exhibit a deposit equal to gate and parking charges must be made and for which a receipt will be given. If departure is made within one hour of arrival the deposit will be refunded.
4. Each person who becomes an exhibitor thereby agrees to conform to the rules, conditions, and classes as established in this and all other parts of these regulations.
5. All exhibits are, from the time they are placed in competition until the close of the Show, in charge of the Show officials. No exhibit may be removed by an exhibitor without permission of the Show Superintendent or his designated representative.
5. Any number of entries may be made by an exhibitor in any class in the section or sections in which he is entitled to exhibit, except class numbers which are limited to one (1) entry only.
7. The Show officials reserve the right to remove from exhibition any entry which has wilted or is not worthy. Likewise awards may be withheld at the discretion of the judges.

THE EXHIBITS

8. American Rose Society rules regarding the eligibility of varieties, types and color classifications will govern all entries. Roses must be identified according to A.R.S. guidelines.
9. All blooms must have been grown by the exhibitor out-of-doors in their own garden.
10. Specimen blooms of Hybrid Teas, Hybrid perpetuals and Grandifloras (where specified) must be exhibited without side buds. Side buds will disqualify bloom.. Evidence of recent or improper disbudding will result in penalty. However, Single Hybrid Teas must be exhibited as naturally grown flowers not disbudded. On all other types of roses, exhibitors may remove any unwanted materials from any specimen without disqualification but subject to penalization for impairment.
11. Entries must be recorded on entry blanks available at the Fair Office or at the Show site on arrival. Entry tags furnished by the Fair must be completely filled out both top and bottom parts including exhibitor number, either typewritten, gummed labels, stamped, or printed and attached to the container, folded double so that only section, class and variety be exposed.
